

Student Table:

The Student table is designed to store information about students.

It includes columns for StudentID (primary key), FirstName, LastName, DateOfBirth, Email, and ClassID.

Sample data has been inserted for two students belonging to different classes.

The ClassID column establishes a relationship with the Classes table.

Subjects Table:

The Subjects table is designed to store various subjects.

It includes columns for SubjectID (primary key) and SubjectName.

Classes Table:

The Classes table is designed to store information about classes.

It includes columns for ClassID (primary key) and ClassName.